I am an attorney licensed to practice in the State of California, and a member of the Bar of this Court. I am a partner at the law firm Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, counsel of record for Apple Inc. ("Apple") in this case. I am familiar with Apple's treatment of highly proprietary and confidential information based on my personal experience representing Apple. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated below and, if called as a witness, would testify competently thereto. I submit this declaration in support of Apple's Statement in Support of Administrative Motion to Seal.¹

- I am aware that the law of this Circuit allows information to be filed under seal for good cause or in certain compelling circumstances. I also understand that courts routinely seal filings where documents include a company's trade secrets, internal codenames, confidential research and development, personally identifiable information, or other commercially sensitive information. I understand that this Court has broad latitude to prevent the public disclosure of these categories of commercially sensitive information.
- 3. Apple operates in an intensely competitive environment. Apple has serious and legitimate concerns that competitors will be quick to capitalize on any release of Apple's highly sensitive information in order to gain competitive advantage. As such, Apple takes extensive measures to protect the confidentiality of its information.
- 4. Apple has carefully reviewed Exhibits A and B to Epic Games, Inc.'s Administrative Motion to Consider Whether Another Party's Material Should Be Sealed Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5 ("Epic's Motion") (Dkt. 1457), and now proposes to partially seal information therein that, if disclosed, could reveal Apple's confidential engagement of outside consultants and counsel, personally identifiable information, and competitively sensitive, non-public project codenames.
 - 5. Exhibits A and B contain competitively sensitive, non-public information regarding

¹ Courts in the Ninth Circuit routinely grant motions to seal based on declarations of counsel. See, e.g., In re Apple Securities Litigation, 19-cv-02033-YGR, Dkt. 223 (N.D. Cal.); In re Qualcomm Litig., No. 17-cv-00108-GPC, Dkt. 398-1 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 26, 2018); Avago Techs. U.S. Inc. v. Iptronics Inc., No. 10-cv-02863-EJD, Dkt. 544 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2015); Cisco Sys., Inc. v. OpenTV Inc., No. 13-cv-00282-EJD, Dkt. 76 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 8, 2013). If the Court deems this declaration insufficient, Apple respectfully requests that it be permitted to file a further declaration supporting filing under seal.

1 Apple's engagement of outside consultants and counsel in connection with Apple's foreign regulatory 2 legal strategy. Exhibit B contains personally identifiable information in the form of email addresses of Apple employees, outside counsel, and outside consultants. Exhibit B also contains competitively 3 4 sensitive, non-public information regarding Apple's internal project codenames, which Apple intends to 5 keep confidential. Public disclosure of Apple's confidential use of outside consultants and non-public 6 project codenames would reveal Apple's internal business and legal decision-making and proprietary 7 information, which could be used by competitors to gain an unfair competitive advantage over Apple 8 and/or affect Apple's market position. Apple has narrowly-tailored its sealing request as to maximize 9 the public's access to court documents without jeopardizing Apple's privacy or business interests. The
